reserve and other funds, members can be paid dividend on their paid shares at the rate not exceeding 60%.

DISPUTES

47. All disputes touching these by-laws or the business of society between members or past member, employees or past employees, surety, whether such surety is a member or not or persons claiming through them and society or its committee or officers or past officers or other parties as mentioned in Section 54 of the Act shall be referred to Registrar which will be decided by Registrar himself or will be got decided through Registrar's Nominee.

GENERAL

- 48. (1) So long as somebody does not become a member of society, he shall not be allowed to take any immovable property of society or any part of it.
- (2) If a member owes any dues to the society, he will not be allowed to take part in any election or meeting of society.

EXPLANATION

- (3) (i) As per this by-law, word "dues" will mean any installment, municipal charges or any other dues of the society which are payable for a period of more than three months from the date of demand or any such amount decided by court or Registrar or his nominee, such amount is not paid for a period of more than three months.
- (ii) To act upon these by-laws, Secretary will prepare a list of defaulters from the certified record of the society and will hang it in society office on the date on which agenda is issued for General Meeting elections. Such members will be allowed to pay such amount (under protest if he so desires) till the election or general meeting. Such persons who are included in that list will not be eligible to contest the elections or take part in the meeting so long as they do not present a receipt for payment as per the list. Secretary will issue a notice under postal certificate to defaulter members at least ten days before the elections or the general meeting that his name is included in the list of defaulters. In this notice he will specify the amount payable. Secretary will give a certificate, before the holding of meeting that such list was affixed and concerned persons have been issued notices. This list will be enough to disqualify under by-law No. 23(2) and this will not affect the right of the society to recover the amount demanded by the society, irrespective of the fact that amount demanded against a defaulter is wrongly shown or that name of any defaulter is included by error or is so deleted.
